

International Coastal Cleanup

September 17, 2011

9 a.m.-noon***

*(*Some cleanups occur on a different date or time; check individual listings for details)*

Each year, volunteers around the world show they care about their coasts by flocking to the beaches to clean up and document the trash they find. The Audubon Society of Rhode Island is proud to coordinate cleanup efforts for the Ocean State. If you would like to volunteer, please contact one of the local cleanup leaders listed below. For general questions, contact July Lewis at 401-949-5454 x3044 or jlewis@asri.org. This is a rain-or-shine event, but may be postponed in the event of a severe storm.

Bring a pair of gloves and come prepared to make a difference!
