

Providence Waterfront Charrette - Johnson and Wales University - Harborside Campus	Monday, June 9th	Tuesday, June 10th	Wednesday, June 11th	Thursday, June 12th
Morning	Presentation	Small Group Session	Small Group Session	Team Work Day
9 - 11 am	Regulatory Framework and Environmental Conditions : SAMP, water classifications, public access, urban coastal greenway policy, sea level rise and its implicaitons	TEAM WORK SESSION	Waterfront Industry Trends: Short Sea Shipping - what is it? What are the land and water requirements to make it viable in Providence? What are other trends in waterfront industries that may impact Providence? What investments in infrastructure/ land are necessary?	Charrette Team Work Day.
Mid-day	Presentation	Small Group Session	Small Group Session
11:30 am - 1:30 pm	Energy Resources: How does this area contribute to the regional energy supply? What are the current conditions and trends for the future; what are the impacts?	Trends in Mixed-Use Waterfronts: How are other cities reviving their waterfronts? How are other cities buffering uses, what uses seem to be compatible, what strategies have other cities used?	TEAM WORK SESSION
Afternoon	Presentation	Small Group Session	Small Group Session
2 - 4 pm	PORT: Port of Providence - current uses, ProvPort's plans for expansion, land and infrastructure needs. Water-dependent and water-enhanced uses - what are the current uses, what are their limitations, plans for expansion, land and infrastructure needs? What are the impacts of the existing water-dependent uses?	Public Use: What are the best locations for public access? How can the entire waterfront area be better connected to the neighborhoods? What opportunities are there for park space, venue and activity space?	Revenue from the waterfront: How can the city benefit from the waterfront? What are innovative strategies that other places are doing? What other sources of revenue, fees are possible?
Evening	Kick Off Event - Presentation	Evening Session - Interactive	Evening Session - Interactive	Wrap Up 6:00pm - 8:00pm
6 - 9 pm	City's Comprehensive Plan - what does the plan say about the waterfront? Presentation of economic research - introduction of the idea of 4 scenarios for the future of the waterfront, what are they, how will they be evaluated? What are the plans for the coming months of work?	Refining the 4 Scenarios - 4 possible visions of the future of the waterfront. What are the pros and cons of each? Participants will compare them according to criteria.	Refining the 4 Scenarios - 4 possible visions of the future of the waterfront. What are the pros and cons of each? Participants will compare them according to criteria. - this is a repeat session from Tuesday evening -	Presentation of ideas from the week - Prioritization of ideas & Next Steps